

Joseph Willrich Lutalo Cwa Mukama Rwemera Weira, currently 39, is a Ugandan born scholar most active in the 21st Century.

As of this moment, Joseph has a vast spectrum of contributions to the theory and practice of computing, mathematics, philosophy, creative literature, the visual and aural arts as well as software engineering (his major focus), spanning

50+ academic works (ORCID),

18 scholarly articles (Google Scholar), and 148 video lectures voluntarily delivered thus far (YouTube).

Outside of academia and scientific writing, he has already penned and self-published 2 full-length novels as well as 3 novellas among other important known contributions to modern works of fiction (I*POW).

[Fut. Prof.] Joseph, apart from being the current Editor in Chief for I*POW – a role he fills purely voluntarily for the Internet Community, he likewise founded it and also serves there as a passionate mentor and supporter of several still unpublished but promising, young, Internet-era writers from around the world right now.

He is likewise founder and current Internet President of NUCHWEZI (nuchwezi.com), a somewhat embattled, though very relevant and globally impactful Research-oriented Innovations and Internet Culture company founded in and based in Garuga, UGANDA.

He is a father of 1 boy and no girl yet, is not yet married, was born into a Catholic family, and continues to voluntarily contribute towards furthering science, mathematics and philosophy, mostly based out of his private, home-based laboratory at Plot 266, 1st Cwa Road, in GARUGA.

Despite some challenges wearing multiple hats, His Bytes J. Willrich Lutalo is actively working towards, and hoping to secure his PhD in Computer Science and Mathematics, as well as working towards the undeniable possibility that he might have to serve as a leader of his country in the future.
